Course Packages

Our training packages are for organisations who seek genuine cultural shift and ways to ensure learning is retained and becomes embedded in workplace behaviours.

They offer an alternative to the typical scatter-gun approach of booking a range of unrelated training programs for different people. These packages offer continuity, consistency of language and a sense of common purpose across the organisation, which is essential for genuine development.

We have five flexible “mix and match” packages available, which offer a sequential organisation-wide program, to be implemented over 6 to 12 months.

Mentally Healthy Workplace

With an emphasis on prevention and early intervention, this package is for those organisations who would like to benefit from the retention, productivity and morale benefits of offering a psychologically safe and healthy environment for all.

Communication and Interpersonal Skills

Communication has such a profound impact, and this package will transform the way your organisation interacts, both internally and with the wider world.

Diversity and Inclusion

Develop a deeper understanding of others, prevent discrimination and ensure everyone feels welcome.

Creative Thinking and Innovation

Disruptive thinking, problem solving and brain-hacks for organisations ready to become more innovative.

Governance and Leadership

Decision making, risk management and strengths-based, ethical leadership for all levels of your organisation.

All 1 or 2 day courses:

- ✓ Suitable for 24 people
- ✓ Delivered at your workplace or our own training premises in Subiaco.
- ✓ Include:
 - pre & post survey
 - customisation
 - quality materials and outstanding delivery
 - personalised certificate of attendance

Mentally Healthy Workplace

One in four Australians experience a mental illness at some point in their lives. That means right now, some of your staff either have or recovering from a mental health disorder.

But mental health is not just about illness. Just like physical health, there are many ways maintain our mental wellbeing.

Research shows that work practices make a big difference to staff mental health plus productivity, retention and work quality.

This package is for those organisations who are ready to become a psychologically safe and mentally healthy workplace.

Diversity and Inclusion

Diversity is having a seat at the table.

Inclusion is having a voice.

Belonging is having that voice heard.

Our world is a diverse mosaic of cultures, genders, ages, abilities and backgrounds.

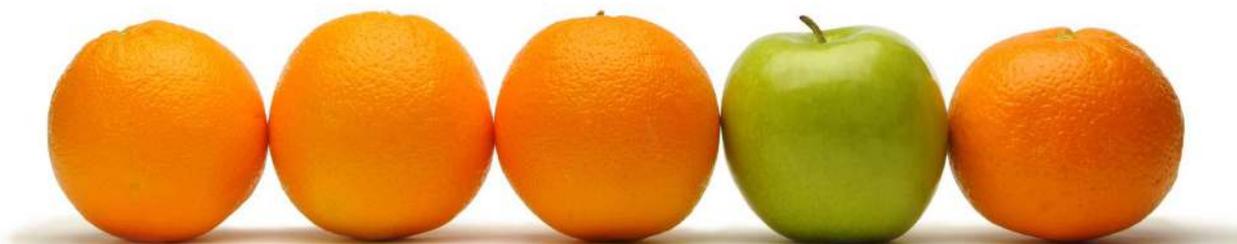

And the research clearly shows that those workplaces that embrace diversity and create a welcoming culture for everyone enjoy a range of benefits such as higher productivity, higher loyalty and work quality, lower absentee and presenteeism, better working relationships, lower staff turnover and are simply better places to work.

This insightful package explores the many facets of workplace diversity and shifts the inclusion paradigm from something we do to accommodate minorities, to something we do so everyone feels welcome and included.

Exploring concepts of intersectionality, personal difference, privilege, cultural inclusion, unconscious bias and systemic advantage, we invite participants to become collaborators in creating a great workplace and celebrating diverse strengths.

Topic Booking Bonus*

- 3 Book at least three course topics and receive a FREE guest speaker with lived experience of a diversity topic to share their personal story with your staff.

Creative Thinking and Innovation

If you keep doing what you've always done, you'll keep getting what you've always got.

So, to come up with a genuinely innovative idea or break-through solution, we need to be willing to change our thinking and use our brains in a different way.

Most of us have ingrained thinking habits that detract from or hinder our lives, without us even being aware of them. The good news is that thoughts can be changed.

Drawing of the fields or neuropsychology and design thinking this stimulating and rewarding package explores how ordinary people can come up with game-changing ideas, and how mental leaps are made.

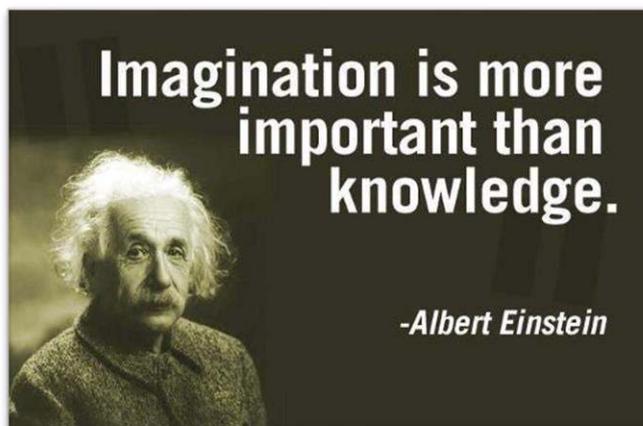

Ideal for thinkers from across all industries, this package promotes lateral thinking and builds cognitive skills. Practical and experiential, as well as heaps of fun!
